

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Please print and complete this form, then upload it to your application.

Western Washington University requires this statement of financial responsibility from applicants for non-immigrant visas. This document must be on file before admission will be considered. Financial aid is not available to international students. A student must be prepared to pay all educational and living expenses at the beginning of each quarter. If you do not have the required funds, WWU will not be able to issue the I-20 document that is required for applying for the F-1 student visa.

This estimate represents expenses for an academic year, or nine months. International travel, and summer expenses are not included. These charges are subject to change each year and students should be prepared for adjustments.

Please indicate the program to which you are applying and certify below the expected source of funding for associated expenses.

<input type="checkbox"/> Master of Business Administration	$57,953
<input type="checkbox"/> Speech/Language Pathology	$57,179
<input type="checkbox"/> Clinical Doctorate of Audiology	$51,689
<input type="checkbox"/> Clinical Mental Health Counseling or School Counselor	$50,732
<input type="checkbox"/> Other Graduate Program	$49,484

If admitted, you will need to provide documentation of funds on deposit that meets or exceeds the amount identified above according to the specific graduate program you intend to pursue before an I-20 may be issued. The actual account balance does not need to be disclosed. Funds may be retained in domestic currency at the time of validation, but reported equivalent to U.S. Dollars. All financial documents submitted with your application must be no older than six months. All documents must be in English. Note regarding Spouse/Children: Students declaring dependents (spouse and/or children) must show additional proof of financial support to cover living expenses and health insurance costs. The financial documents must show an additional $9,357 USD per year for a spouse, and $6,660 USD per child/year.
